All in all it is a good hidden object game, had I not completed it in under two hours! That is extremely short if you ask me. They should have at least included a bonus chapter. Don't pay more than five bucks for it and even that is a stretch.. All in all it is a good hidden object game, had I not completed it in under two hours! That is extremely short if you ask me. This is a decent HOG and I was enjoying the game until I stumbled upon a game breaking bug. How could you create a game where it's possible for an interaction window to close before the player gets all of the items? Thanks to this mistake, I cannot progress and the game is over! Disappointing.. This is a decent HOG and I was enjoying the game until I stumbled upon a game breaking bug.
